"Revenue from Operations for Q1FY27 grew by 19% YoY, marking a good start to the year. The Alloys division has been a notable contributor in recent quarters, following the commissioning of new capacity in Q4FY26. We continue to engage with customers across Oil & Gas, Aerospace, and other sectors.

Operating margins during the quarter remained healthy, aided by a favourable product mix. While the Alloys division has started contributing commercial volumes, our focus is also on the Relays project, where we are working towards commercial business in the second half of the financial year.

In Quantum Magnetics, the Phase 2 CAPEX covering block cutting, machining, and surface treatment remains on track for commissioning in Q3FY27."
